Implementation Framework & Work Orders

- Site Selection & Approval: Road restoration activities will target specific segments selected in coordination with the Ministry of Public Works and Transport (MPWT) and respective local municipalities. The exact locations will be formally detailed, approved by MPWT and the municipalities, and issued to CDR as official work orders.
- Notice to Commence & Mobilization: Following contract signing, CDR will issue the Notice to Commence in accordance with the contract terms and conditions. The issuance of work orders will enable contractors to finalize their mobilization plans, executed in coordination with the Lebanese Army (LA) and the Ministry of Public Health (MoPH).

Bidding & Pricing Terms

- Location Allocation: CDR reserves the full right to designate work locations during contract implementation based on work orders issued by MPWT and relevant municipalities. No financial or administrative claims regarding location assignments will be entertained.

The following points were raised by the bidders and answered by CDR.

Question 1:
Should a price breakdown be submitted?

CDR Answer:
No, a price breakdown is not required.

Question 2:
Is price revision applicable?

CDR Answer:
No, price revisions are not applicable.
